25X1

During the period of 28 July through 15 August 1983 and at the request of Office of Logistics, Procurement Division, Automatic Data Processing (OL/PD/ADP&EB), a series of meetings were conducted for the purpose of emphasizing the importance of reassessing Quality Assurance (QA) requirements relative to both the LIMS and CAMS QA support contracts with [ ] on the basis of current and/or future development activities under the programs in question. As a result of the reference discussions, it was agreed that LIMS QA requirements and the three year short fall in contractual coverage would be addressed by Office of Data Processing (ODP/QAD) upon completion of the System Design Review (SDR) by the development contractor, [ ] in November 1983. With regard to the CAMS QA support effort, it was agreed that action would be taken to evaluate future QA requirements subsequent to an analysis of the current development status.
